

Week of September 21, 2015

Monday, September 21, 2015

Do Now: Science

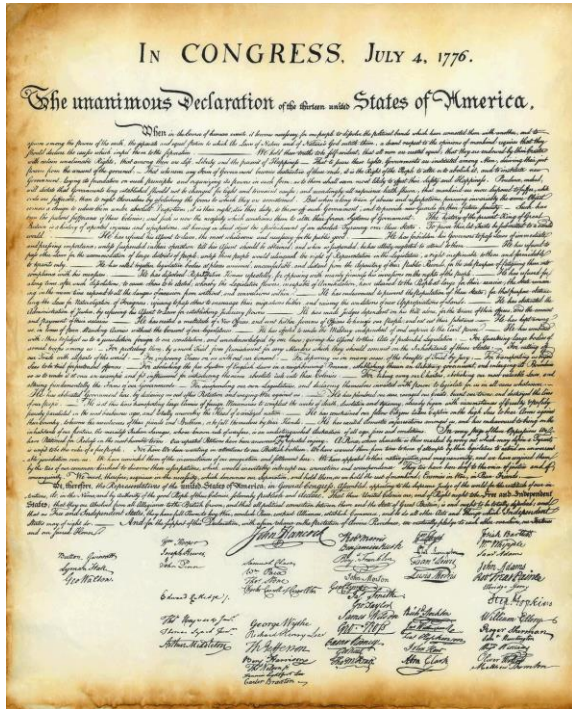

1. Write down your Homework and leave your agenda open.
2. Put your NAME, STUDENT NUMBER, and CLASS on your “Do Now” Sheet.
3. Organize the papers that have been handed back.

Paper	Behind What Divider to Clip In
Science Study Guide	Science - Assessment
Matter Test	Science – Assessment
Concept/Vocabulary Review	Science – Notes
21 st Century Skills HW	Social Studies - Notes

Do Now: Social Studies

4:00

The original Declaration of Independence

Consider the following artifacts from American history:

Where should these historical items be kept?

Furniture Owned by George Washington

The original flag sewn by Betsy Ross

Agenda

- Read Chapter 1, Lesson 2
 - "What is the Evidence?", pages 10 - 12
 - Independent Practice:
 - Complete task cards to identify primary and secondary sources.
-

Tuesday, September 22, 2015

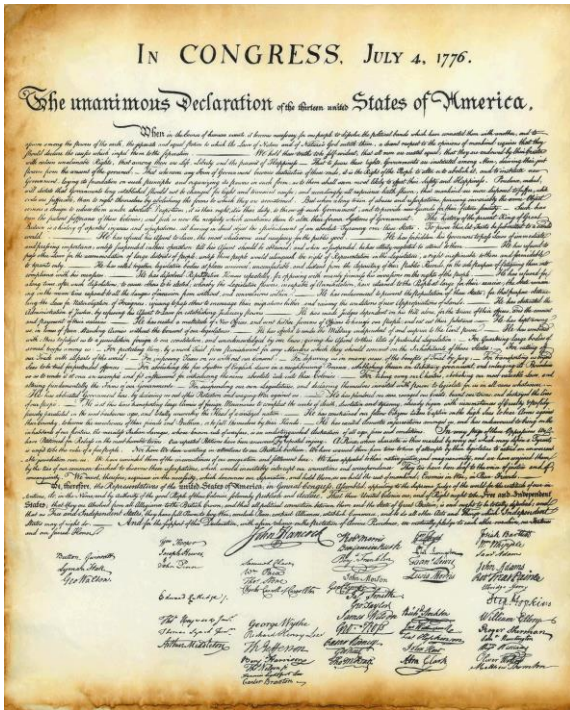

Do Now: Social Studies

4:00

The original Declaration of Independence

Consider the following artifacts from American history:

Should they remain in the United States? Why or Why Not?

Furniture Owned by George Washington

The original flag sewn by Betsy Ross

Agenda

- Stations: (10 minutes at each station)
 - Station 1: Primary vs. Secondary Sources
 - Station 2: Time Line Activity
 - Station 3: Open Note Quiz

Round 1

10:00

Round 2

10:00

Round 3

10:00

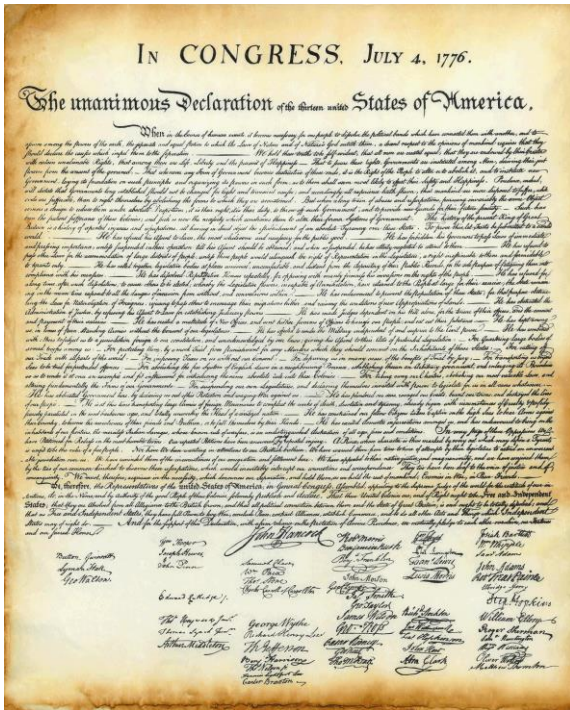

Wednesday, September 23, 2015

Do Now: Social Studies

⚙️ 4:00

The original
Declaration of Independence

Consider the following list of artifacts from American history:

Should people from Europe or Asia be able to purchase one of these objects?

Furniture Owned by George Washington

The original flag sewn
by Betsy Ross

Agenda

- Chapter 3, Lesson 1
"The Paleolithic Age", pages 54-57
-

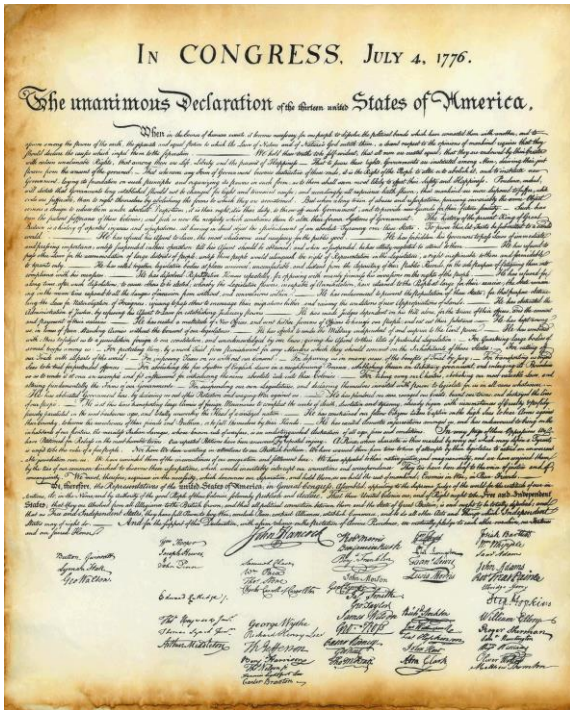

Thursday, September 24, 2015

Do Now: Social Studies

4:00

The original Declaration of Independence

Consider the following list of artifacts from American history:

Should other countries be able to display the items in their country?

Furniture Owned by George Washington

The original flag sewn by Betsy Ross

Agenda

- Chapter 3, Lesson 1
 - "The Ice Ages", pages 60- 61